

ENHANCING CLINICAL LABORATORY COMMUNICATION: LANE & CLINISYS PARTNERSHIP

Lane has been an authorized partner with Clinisys (previously Sunquest) for decades.

Since 1979, Clinisys has been providing diagnostic informatic solutions to laboratories and healthcare organizations. They develop, design and support a comprehensive clinical information suite for over 1200 hospitals. Clinisys is constantly evolving and pushing the boundaries of diagnostic care for pathology laboratories worldwide.

Clinisys's solution, PowerPath, and Lane's Passport faxing solution provide an enterprise platform to successfully transmit laboratory results to and from doctors offices, hospitals and clinics.

Are you utilizing Clinisys today and want to take advantage of our faxing solution?
